

SPOTTED A CREATIVE GAP IN TOMORROW'S NEW BUSINESS PITCH?
CLIENT MOVED THE DEADLINE FORWARD ON A BRIEF?
JUST TOO BUSY TO BRAINSTORM?

If you need quick creative ideas that find the brief's bullseye, AIM has got your back!

Perhaps you need creative support on a project but simply don't have the time to book a freelance creative for a full or half day.

Perhaps your client or new business brief isn't urgent but doesn't warrant a full or half day booking.

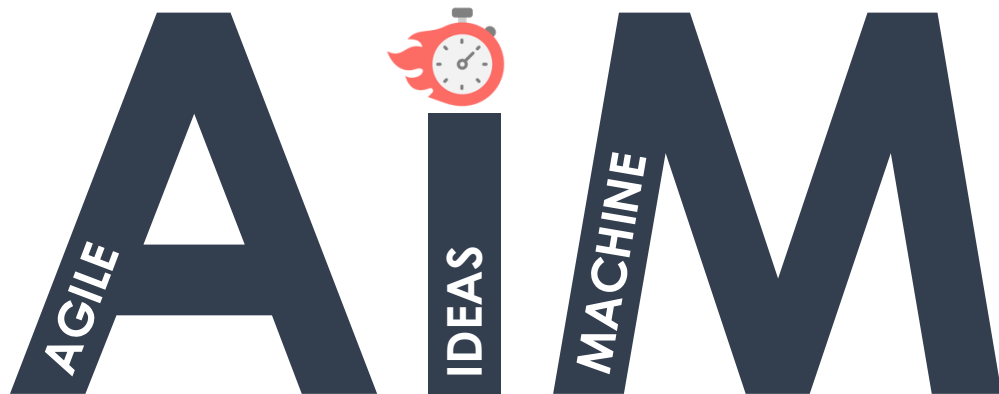

Perhaps you just need flexibility in terms of when you book, how much notice you give, how you brief and how much you invest.

Whatever your creative conundrum, as an experienced creative problem solver I'll take your brief or creative challenge, apply my own creative process, and swiftly create unique, on-message, attention-worthy earned media, experiential, content and social ideas.

Book at short notice. Brief in your way. Pay by the hour. Get what you need.

AIM is charged at £75 per hour.
(projects completed from home)
